BRYAN AND GOEBEL

Arrived at 4:20 and Spoke 40 Minutes.Crowd Estimated at 10,000 Went Wild With Enthusiasm—
A Great Day.Senator Goebel went to Cairo Sunday night to meet the Bryan special. He was accompanied by Capt. Jas. Blackburn and a dozen newspaper correspondents, among them being Mr. Joseph Altscheler, of the New York World, and Mr.
James Creelman, of the Journal.Senator Blackburn's daughter is seriously ill, and he did not go to Cairo, but he will join the Bryan party at Frankfort this morning and make the rest of the trip.National Committeeman Urey Woodson and John W. Vreeland, State Central Committeemen for the Louisville district, arrived in Chicago Sunday morning in the private car which Mr. Bryan will use.Mr. Woodson made the following announcement in Sunday's papers:"Members of the press and other entitled to go on Bryan special train should rendezvous at Cairo, Ill., Sunday night. The special will leave Cairo 7 a. m., Monday.
Will have accommodations for only fifteen persons, and positively can not take others than those who have been notified. On account of a very fast run that will be necessary to make schedule, it will be impossible to grant requests of many towns for five and ten-minute stops. People at other stations than those that have been notified of speeches by Mr. Bryan must not expect stops by the train.By 11 o'clock yesterday the crowd began to gather about the stand and after the first I. C. train came in Congressman H. D. Allen, who came on that train, was called upon and made a stirring speech of an hour. Hon. J. D. Clardy also entertained the crowd for a while.At one o'clock the speaking was resumed and Mr. Geo. F. Campbell first occupied the stand for half an hour, introducing at the conclusion of his remarks Hon. C. C. Grassham, who made the principal speech of the day before the arrival of the special train. His address of an hour was a fine speech and was loudly cheered by the thousands of enthusiastic Democrats. The I. C. special came in ahead of the regular with 200 people from Henderson and the 2 o'clock swelled the crowd.The L. & N. train also brought a big crowd from the South. As the hour of 2:30 drew nearer the crowd continued to swell until the streets were densely packed. Then came the report that the special was nearly two hours late, but the crowd remained in place, standing in the sun, and waited as patiently as possible until the time rolled by.The train arrived at 4:20 and Mr.
Bryan, Senator Goebel and those with them were escorted at once to the stand in carriages.Mr. Bryan was introduced by Senator Goebel and spoke for 20 minutes. His speech was a strong plea for Goebel and no doubt whatever was left as to his position.
He declared that the outside world knew nothing and cared nothing for personal differences, that the defeat of Goebel would be a defeat for the Chicago platform upon which he was nominated. A victory for Goebel would sound the first gun for 1900.The crowd about the stand was not less than 8,000 or 10,000 and the enthusiasm was unbounded.When Mr. Bryan concluded Senator Goebel spoke for 15 minutes and was received with equally as much enthusiasm.All the way to the L. & N. depot crowds followed the carriages and the distinguished visitors were forced to hold an informal reception while waiting a few minutes for the correspondents to arrive.The train pulled out at 5 p. m. amid the cheers of the assembled multitude. It was a great day for democracy.

CRUSHED HIS KNUCKLES.

L. & N. Employee Hurt by a Hand-Car.Mr. J. Harry Sivley, an L. & N. section hand at work on the Crofton section, happened to an accident Saturday, which will lay him up for some time. While coming down a steep grade on a hand-car the "pinch bar" caught in one of the car wheels and Mr. Sivley, in attempting to pull it out, got his hand caught in some way and the knuckles were very badly crushed. He will not be able to resume work probably for several weeks.

BRIDE AT FOURTEEN.

essee and Get Married.Mr. Pat Shoulders, a young farmer of the Cerulean springs neighborhood, and Miss. Katie Cox, of the same place, eloped to Dover, Tenn., last Friday and were united in marriage. The couple immediately returned to Cerulean and will go to housekeeping. The bride is only 14 years of age, and it was on account of her extreme youth that her parents opposed the marriage.

DON'T SHOOT YET.

Bird Law Does Not Expire Until Nov. 15.The bird law does not expire until Nov. 15 and it is unlawful to kill, capture, or have in possession quail until after that date. It is reported that in some sections of the county pot hunters have already begun the slaughter of birds and it would be well enough to bear in mind the fact that the law is not yet out and persons violating the same lay themselves liable to indictment.

GRIFFITH-HARTY.

Catholic Church Scene of Pretty Wedding Sunday Night.Mr. John L. Griffith and Miss Ella W. Harty were married at the Catholic church in this city at 11:15 p. m., Sunday, by Father Hill, of Russellville. Only a limited number of the friends and acquaintances of the couple were present on the occasion. Mr. Griffith and his bride immediately left for Nashville, where they will spend several days. They will then go to Cincinnati, which will be their future home.

Consumption

is robbed of its terrors by the fact that the best medical authorities state that it is a curable disease; and one of the happy things about it is, that its victims rarely ever lose hope.You know there are all sorts of secret nostrums advertised to cure consumption. Some make absurd claims. We only say that if taken in time and the laws of health are properly observed,SCOTT'S EMULSIONwill heal the inflammation of the throat and lungs and nourish and strengthen the body so that it can throw off the disease.We have thousands of testi-this malady.See and hear, all druggists, was not begun until yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, when Hon. R.

A. Burnett, of Cadiz, opened for the
